Dear Trade Partner,

Qatar Airways remains committed to taking people home, keeping the global supply chain moving and supporting communities by providing vital air services wherever operationally possible and in compliance with immigration and quarantine regulations. The safety and wellbeing of our customers and crew members remain our top priorities.

Qatar Airways continues to operate a daily service from the USA to Doha, connecting onwards to over 35 cities. The current daily operation is split between Chicago and Dallas-Fort Worth as per the below schedule:

All Eastbound services will depart in the early morning, arriving in Doha late the same night.
