

Passenger Guidelines - Travel With Confidence

18 May 2020

Please refer to 'Tracked Changes' in the Appendix 3 which summarises changes from v1.7.

You can rely on us. More choices and flexibility with the airline you can trust. To support customers and agency partners through the ongoing COVID19 situation, we are enhancing our commercial policy. Your customers can plan now and travel when they are ready. The safety and wellbeing of our customers is of paramount importance to Qatar Airways. This Passenger Guidelines (Ref No. 1059) is our consolidated and most up to date policy which supersedes all others including our 'Travel with Confidence' policy (Ref No. 1052). This document will continue to be updated and shared regularly while the latest travel information will always be available on the Qatar Airways website.

The table below outlines the scenarios covered under this policy, the applicability period and options available.

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)
Are the Passenger Guidelines applicable to all customers regardless of booking channel?	All applicable customers including or agency partners and corporate customers can benefit from the Passenger Guidelines.
How many rebooking and/or routing changes are permitted?	Multiple changes are permitted free of charge to both changeable and non-changeable fares provided travel is completed by 31 December 2020 and within the validity of the ticket.
Will any fare difference and charges be waived if the outbound travel is before 31 December 2020, but inbound travel date is after 1 January 2021?	Any fare difference (within the same cabin) and taxes, fees, charges, surcharges will only be waived if all travel (both outbound and inbound) is completed by 31 December 2020.
Will the voucher need to be used in one transaction regardless of the ticket value?	EMDs may be split to purchase multiple tickets for the same passenger. However, any unutilized value is non-refundable. Split EMD shall have 2 year validity from the original EMD issue date.
What is included in the additional 10% value of the voucher?	For customers opting the voucher (EMD), Qatar Airways will offer an additional 10% in value based on the original ticket's unutilized base fare, unutilized surcharges and unutilized YQ/YR charges.
Are refunds of the unutilized value allowed?	Refund of unutilized value is permitted and refund fees can be waived provided that the itinerary was impacted by an involuntary change. Please note that non-refundable unutilized taxes remain non-refundable and non-exchangeable.
Are refunds of previously paid change and/or no-show fees and/or paid additional collection allowed?	Refunds of previously paid change and/or no-show fees and/or paid additional collection are not allowed.
Are refunds of any fare difference in case of cabin class downgrade allowed?	If a downgrade in cabin class (i.e. from J to Y) is required, a refund of the fare difference is permitted to the original form of payment.
Are EMDs refundable?	EMDs are refundable. Please note that the refund amount will only include the original unutilized amount and not the 10% additional value that Qatar Airways introduced as a customer offering from 26 March 2020. If a QR office exchanged a travel agency issued ticket to an EMD voucher on its behalf, QR will undertake the refund process and raise an ACM for the original unutilized amount (without the +10% additional value). If a Travel Agency exchanged a ticket to an EMD voucher, the Travel Agency may refund the EMD voucher for the original unutilized amount using the standard refund process. If passenger was not impacted by involuntary changes, refund and/or no-show penalty shall be charged as applicable. No waiver applies to refundable or non-refundable fares.
Can EMDs that have already been refunded benefit from the new policy?	EMDs that have already been refunded or have had refund requests will not be eligible from the new benefits including the 10% added value.
How can the EMD (travel voucher) issued from QR office be used?	EMD issued by QR can be exchanged by any QR office. Passengers or Travel Partners can contact QR office or QR Sales representative respectively to action such requests.

Are upgrades to higher cabins possible?	Upgrades are permitted provided that the difference of applicable fare, taxes, fees, charges and surcharges are collected and fare basis conditions adhered. In such case, change and no-show fees will be waived.
Are no-show penalties applicable?	No-show condition and no-show penalty for rebooking or exchanges will be waived. Refunds for voluntary scenarios will not be waived.
Are name changes permitted?	Name changes are not permitted.
Are the Passenger Guidelines applicable to group bookings?	The Passenger Guidelines are applicable to group bookings. Kindly contact your local sales representative who will be happy to assist in servicing such bookings.
How are ancillaries treated under this policy?	If an ancillary service (EMD) has already been purchased, but has not been fulfilled due to involuntary changes, we offer an exchange voucher “Good for Further Transportation” provided that it is in connection with an impacted flight(s). EMDs with open status are valid up to 24 months from date of issue. If a customer wishes to voluntarily change an itinerary which includes an ancillary service (EMD), you will need to re-book and associate the EMD to the new itinerary. EMDs with open status are valid up to 24 months from date of issue. For both scenarios, if the ancillary was booked through QR sales offices, kindly contact your QR sales representative.
Are all ticket stocks covered by this policy?	Only those issued on QR (157) stock/plate are covered by this policy. Tickets issued on Other Airline stock/plate, as well as on STA (000) stock/plate are not covered.
How will the Stopover product be managed?	For stopover bookings made through Discover Qatar (DQ), kindly contact a DQ representative. If bookings require immediate attention, kindly contact QRH.
Are customers still able to fly via Doha in light of the COVID-19 situation?	Passengers with onward connections through DOH will be accepted for travel and Qatar Airways’ global network will continue its operation for transit passengers as normal, subject to entry restrictions at their final destination.
